###

I have been a licensed real estate sales person for over 25 years. I have a significant background in real estate, lending, appraisal, and sales training. I was a Vice President and Sales Manager for a large lending institution, and also a Regional Sales Trainer serving the greater East Bay.. It was my job to show salespeople "how to do it".. I worked with Del Webb and Pulte Homes for nearly 10 years as a sales agent and was always a consistent Top Producer. This background offers you an opportunity to work with a professional who not only knows the business, but the territory and the homes as well.

I can give you honest, knowledgeable advice in regard to your home's value, what is going on in the marketplace, and how to get your home sold in this "quiet" market. There is no "magic; but, if you want someone who works for you and has a wealth of experience and 10 years worth of referral business, then call me.
