

Culcha Shock Live 2008

By Geraldine Staples

Dated: Aug 27, 2008

he South has always been a hotspot for new musical entertainment. Lately, a buzz has been building over the next batch from Atlanta, GA. CSL is proud to bring you CSL08. The new handful of artists climbing out of the GA clay bring everything from Hip

A new custom artwork apparel store in downtown Atlanta, GA has brought the underground scene to the surface. Store owner, Sebastian Allong joined forces with PLANAY, LLC at the end of the scorching 2008 summer to present Culcha Shock Live 2008. After falling upon the huge non-commercial scene, he was able to find the main group of performers that Atlanta goes out to see.

Besides empty cans of PBRs and retro sneakers, one quickly falls upon names spoken from the contemporary to the skateboarders as the new entertainers while venturing through HOTlanta. From Creative Loafing to URB Magazine , writers have also become interested in the draw to Sky Hy, Doll Daze, and Prema LaNay. Sebastian took to these artists along with others to bring a monumental show of music and amazement with Culcha Shock Live 2008.

Culcha Shock is a company that delivers customized artwork to customers that thrive on uniqueness. With this in mind, the fusion of music has taken an art boutique to another level. From costumed characters to artwork, concert-goers enjoy being taken away from the "everyday."
