

Dryer Vent Wizard Expands in Arizona, Awards Franchise to Chris Wiley in Maricopa County

DVW is more than a dryer vent cleaning service; they also promote fire safety awareness, educating customers about dryer vent maintenance and fire prevention

Sept. 9, 2008 - PRLog -- Murrieta, CA – Greg Longe, co-president of Dryer Vent Wizard (DVW), Dry Clothes, Safe Homes, announced the awarding of a DVW franchise in Arizona. Chris Wiley will service Maricopa County.

Dryer Vent Wizard, Dry Clothes, Safe Homes is a national franchise company specializing in dryer fire prevention and “urgent response” dryer vent cleaning and dryer vent maintenance, repair, replacement and alterations. “I make sure all my customers understand the importance of dryer vent maintenance before my job is complete,” said Chris Wiley.

According to the U.S. Fire Administration “failure to clean” was cited as the leading factor contributing to clothes dryer fires in residential buildings. Similar reports by the Consumer Product Safety Commission, (CPSC), confirm annual maintenance of dryers and dryer vents as a home safety issue lacking consumer awareness. Dryer Vent Wizard, Dry Clothes, Safe Homes provides “urgent response” solutions to the problem of dryers functioning inefficiently or not at all.

Founded in 2004 by David Lavalley in Boston, Massachusetts the company has awarded 50 franchises in major metro markets since franchising began in March 2005.

Chris urges consumers to schedule and inspection and dryer vent cleaning by a professional who can correct problems now to ensure safety and prevent a clothes dryer fire. <http://www.dryerventwizard.com> services Maricopa County, Arizona including Anthem, Avondale, Buckeye, Desert Hills, El Mirage, Fountain Hills, Goodyear, Gilbert, Glendale, Litchfield Park, Circle City, Mesa, New river, Paradise Valley, Peoria, Phoenix, Scottsdale, Sun City, Surprise, Temple, Tolleson, Wittmann, Youngtown and neighboring cities and communities.
