

Local Author Uncovers A Murder In Cantors Wood

By Eloquent Books

Dated: Sep 11, 2008

ELEMENT OF RISK, by author Christine Stokoe - unravels a tangled web of sex, lies and murder.

A storybook love affair turns into a horrifying murder mystery when a three a.m call rocks the life of a woman who thought she had found her perfect life mate.

Kathryn Gilbert was engaged to Marcus Langdon, a wealthy businessman who seemed to have world at his feet. They spent stolen moments wrapped in each other arms at the much loved cottage in Cantors Wood until one faithful night when a terrifying murder takes place at the couple's woodland rendezvous.

The deception unfolds when Marcus is found dead and his avalanche of secrets begins to tumble and reveals that he is plagued with a deviant family history. As detectives dig into his past they find that his father is a child abuser and sexual predator who seemed to pass his twisted legacy onto Marcus. As the mystery continues to unfold, evidence of his murder points to his lover Julie, who happens to be Kathryn's personal assistant. Luckily for Julie, one of the detectives on the case believes that Marcus' murder lies in his family's dark past. The suspense grips you as the twists and turns uncover the shocking truth from a bed of lies.
