On October 16, 2008 Carrie and Ben Bajak of Cruise Holidays of Mission Viejo will join thousands of cruise-selling travel agents in the World's Largest Cruise Night, an exciting event in which travel agencies across North America band together to provide consumers with a world of information on cruise vacations through Cruise Nights, "Virtual" events, cocktail parties, luncheons and an ocean full of cruise-themed events – all in a single day!

Local residents can get a taste of life at sea when Cruise Holidays of Mission Viejo hosts an Open House Reception on Oct. 16 at the Cruise Holidays of Mission Viejo retail store located at Portola Plaza, 27760 Santa Margarita, Mission Viejo, CA 92691 from 6:30 – 8:00 pm. Highlights of the event include: a photo contest for the "stump the audience" competition, a chance to register to win a free cruise, and numerous special offers and discounts. To help cruisers and potential cruisers get a real feel for the cruise industry and its offerings, trained travel professionals will be on hand to give expert advice and assist with cruise planning.

World's Largest Cruise Night (WLCN) is the highlight of October's National Cruise Vacation Month, the once-a-year period during which travel agencies across North America sponsor exciting events and promotions all focused on cruising – the most enjoyable, satisfying and value-oriented vacation option available in today's marketplace.

Cruise Holidays of Mission Viejo is one of over 15,000 North American travel agency members of CLIA. CLIA's 24 member lines represent 97% of the cruise berths marketed in North America.
