American Home Lenders, an FHA approved Mortgage Lender, announced today that it has increased the availability of FHA programs. With some of the changes made by the Federal Government, there are certain FHA refinance programs that can go from origination to close in as little as 3 days.

American Home Lenders through a new marketing campaign is making homeowners aware of FHA programs that can assist them during these tumultuous times. Some of the programs that are offered require no appraisal and are not credit score driven as long as they are current with their mortgage payments.

Clifford Bernstein, President of American Home Lenders, states “We need to do something during these tough times. Our goals are simple, help where and when we can. With the cost of living on the rise American Home Lenders wants to help lighten the burden and increase ones quality of life.” Further, Mr. Bernstein states “we owe it to the average homeowner all the assistance we can possibly give. The FHA guidelines will benefit current FHA borrowers as well as the new. We want to educate the homeowner so they can make the decision that is right for them.”

Started in November, 2001 the founders of American Home Lenders Jonathan Shapiro, CEO and Clifford Bernstein, President created the company as a small mortgage brokerage company. After 7 + successful years of helping people in Florida realize their dreams of home ownership and lower their household expenses which are assisting them during these tumultuous economic times. American Home Lenders was approved as an FHA Mortgage Lender in February, 2008.
