

Diaper Cakes Turn One

By Jacqueline Friesen

Dated: Oct 10, 2008

Online business Baby 2B Nashville celebrates one year anniversary.

Baby 2B Nashville has been turning out diaper cakes for one year. The home based business went live on the internet in October last year and hasn't looked back since. Third quarter sales have tripled since the beginning of the year and are still growing! Owner-operators Jacqueline Friesen and Krista Wunningham have taken a love of diaper cakes and all things baby to new heights. Asked about her diaper cake designs Jacqueline had this to say "I look back on our original designs and I have to say it has been a learning process. I knew what I wanted, I just had to figure out how to achieve the look I was going for. I love the direction we have taken with our diaper cake designs. The Burp Cakes have definitely become my favorites." Baby 2B Nashville would like to thank their clients for their success both locally and across the U.S. . They look forward to serving new clients in their second year. See their designs at <http://www.baby2bnashville.com/>
