

Cambridge Management Group, LLC (CMG) Providing Cash Advances for Lawsuits

By SEOP

Dated: Oct 21, 2008

Cambridge Management Group, LLC (CMG) offers cash advances for lawsuits, designed to provide benefits to both plaintiffs, medical providers and attorneys.

Glen Rock, New Jersey – Cambridge Management Group, LLC (CMG) is a founding member of the American Legal Finance Association (ALFA) and provides needed cash advances for lawsuits. These cash advances provide firm financial footing for plaintiffs during their wait for legal restitution.

Cash advances for lawsuits are innovative forms of litigation funding that offer plaintiffs and their attorneys numerous benefits. Attorneys benefit because the funds can be used to strengthen their clients' cases. The advances can be used to pay for medical assistance, which in and of itself strengthens cases, that plaintiffs might otherwise not be able to receive. The advances can also be used for attorney disbursements such as expert witness and investigation fees.

Each cash advance is carefully calculated to avoid overtaxing the potential award amount. As a rule of thumb, approved plaintiffs can obtain an advance of up to 10% of the expected award or settlement. This ensures that the plaintiff does not suffer monetarily after verdict or settlement.

In addition, cash advances for lawsuits have simple repayment terms geared toward a winning verdict or judgment. Meaning that in the case of a personal injury lawsuit that does not receive an award or settlement, no repayment is required. The advance is the plaintiff's to keep.

While not every lawsuit will be approved for an advance, the application and evaluation process are simple and efficient, returning an answer in mere days.
