

Trendy Fall & Winter Gems Just in time for Christmas!

Shades Jewelry is now boasting stunning new sparkles in silver and white gold jewelry just in time for the holidays. Each piece is hand crafted and hand selected to ensure the finest pieces and highest quality craftsmanship.

Oct. 25, 2008 - PRLog -- Over the past several years silver jewelry complimented with gemstones has made a landmark surge in popularity and continues to climb with each season. The past decade has seen white gold become much more popular and is being chosen over the more traditional colored gold for all sorts of jewelry pieces and settings, including wedding sets.

Shades Jewelry has just added several pendants of Blue Topaz in 18 karat white settings just in time for those December birthdays or that special someone. A great compliment for the new age bride who prefers to hold true to tradition and compliment her attire with that ``something blue`` gemstone of blue topaz.. Shades offers a full guarantee on each selection they carry, free shipping throughout Canada and mainland USA and each piece comes in a beautiful Rose Wood keepsake box, truly a treasure in itself.
