By Realty Executives of Aurora

Dated: Oct 27, 2008

Local Aurora, Colorado real estate broker Jude Sandvall of Realty Executives of Aurora has been named to the Gold Executive Club by Realty Executives Mid-America Region as one of the top-producing agents in the Mid-America region.

Local Aurora, Colorado real estate broker Jude Sandvall of Realty Executives of Aurora has been named to the Realty Executives Mid-America Region Gold Executive Club as one of the top-producing agents in the region which consists of the states of Colorado, Nebraska, Kansas, and Missouri and includes 45 offices and more than 1300 agents.

"I'm fortunate to have some fantastic clients," Sandvall commented when asked about the award. "I work in a great office with a close knit group of fantastic agents and a wonderful managing broker so it makes my job a little easier." Mr. Sandvall achieved this status in only his second year in the real estate business.

He laughs when he's described as a "triple threat." In addition to being a licensed real estate broker he also holds a mortgage broker license and a contractors license. "It really allows me to provide a service to my clients that few other agents in the area can provide." Sandvall states pointing out that he can help take a home purchase from identification and acquisition all the way through rehabbing if necessary.

Mr. Sandvall is excited about the future of the real estate market. "There are some fantastic opportunities out there now that the local market is stabilizing."
