OCTOBER, 29, 2008 (Marietta, GA)--In a genre riddled with bogus claims of street prowess and lyrical skill, it's refreshing to encounter an artist from the faction of hip hop who actually demonstrates honor and probity in his actions and words. Having earned the epithet of "The Holiday King" for releasing a song for every holiday since Christmas 2007, independent hip hop artist C.A.M.I.L has proven himself to be a man of his word with the upcoming release of his long awaited compilation 'ANNUAL ANTHEMS'.

Exalted as the only collection of it's kind and scope, ANNUAL ANTHEMS promises much more than celebratory tunes. The quality of the music is astounding, with the artist unleashing a major jolt of narrative skill and energy that is both contagious and compelling. The CD will not only make C.A.M.I.L, eligible for entry in the Guinness Book of World Records for it's uniqueness and magnitude, but will effectively prove his statement "THIS MY YEAR" as expressed in his New Years anthem at the start of this year long holiday song marathon. Scheduled for official release on December, 2nd, 2008, the collection of songs to be included on the ANNUAL ANTHEM'S CD can be previewed from CAMILMUSIC.NET, the artist's official web site.
