

JFK Conspiracy Revealed By Legendary Folk Singer Witness Phil Ochs

Stephen Sindoni releases a You Tube video entitled "JFK Conspiracy Revealed By Eye Witness Phil Ochs". The amazing video uncovers possible evidence of a conspiracy involving George Herbert Walker Bush.

Oct. 31, 2008 - PRLog -- Legendary folk singer Phil Ochs was told to get a haircut and go to Dallas Texas to observe the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. Phil Ochs can be seen standing in front of the Dal-Tex building. A secret faction in the government planned to frame musicians, blacks, Cubans, and communists to fool the public. The secret faction was headed by former President George Herbert Walker Bush.

The Dal-Tex Building is a seven story office building located at 501 Elm Street in downtown Dallas, Texas (USA). Its location, within Dealey Plaza and it being across the street, adjacent to the Texas School Book Depository, has made it famous and put it at the center of several conspiracy theories concerning the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

The Dal-Tex Building, sometimes called the Dallas-Textiles Building, the Dal-Tex Market Building, or the Dal-Tex Mart Building, was a center of the textile business in Dallas. Abraham Zapruder, who shot the famous Zapruder film, had his offices in the Dal-Tex Building.

The building has been cited as a possible location of a second gunman. This video provides conclusive evidence to support this theory. There is a second You Tube video entitled "Texas School Book Depository" which will back up my claim. In the TSBD video (at the 1 minute and 26 second mark) you will see Phil Ochs watching the assassination of JFK.

There were witnesses who claimed to have seen two men on the 6Th floor of the TSBD building shortly before the shooting. One of the men was said to be black. The witnesses were right.! The Warren Commission's report must be over ruled. America it is time to wake up! Demand a new investigation!
