Imprint On My Heart custom jewelry immortalizing loved ones' fingerprints in wearable art announces the pink tourmaline heart in limited release.

CARMEL, CA --- Imprint On My Heart custom jewelry proudly reveals its newest creation—the pink tourmaline heart pendant. A child's own fingerprint or thumbprint set in sterling silver and surrounded with genuine pink tourmaline stones, is now available, just in time for the holidays.

Imprint On My Heart offers unique personalized jewelry. Each piece is custom made with an easy-to-use fingerprint kit shipped directly with receipt of any order. An existing ink print can also be used.

Capturing a fingerprint or thumbprint, an imprint of a baby's hand or foot, or pet paw print to make an impression could not be easier. Both parents and children will enjoy the process. Children will want to know what “their fingerprints” will become. Parents can hardly wait to receive this one-of-a-kind keepsake piece.

Once the print is received, creation of the piece of wearable art begins. All jewelry is crafted from sterling silver, 14 karat yellow, white and rose gold and 18 karat yellow gold, by jeweler Kathryn Albers.

The pink tourmaline heart pendant is approximately 1 1/8” wide. It features a loved one's fingerprint or thumbprint, centered or artistically positioned to the side, as a showpiece for your personal jewelry collection.

Imprint On My Heart custom jewelry company creates necklaces and bracelets, as well as pendants, charms, lockets, rings, earrings, dog tags, key chains, brooches, tie tacks, cuff links and many other custom designed mementos from finger imprints or pictures made by your children. The company's Love Notes Signature Collection utilizes samples of handwriting or drawings.

A creation from Imprint On My Heart will captivate children, parents, and grandparents alike. Give a truly unique gift this holiday season. For more information and a full line up of jewelry options, visit the Web site: <http://www.ImprintOnMyHeart.com>.
