Bruce B. Geibel, project manager for BE&K Government Group, LLC, has been chosen for inclusion in the 2008-2009 Princeton Premier Registry.

Bruce B. Geibel is a project manager for BE&K Government Group, LLC, a KBR company that provides engineering, construction, and maintenance services for clients in a variety of markets. Bruce joined BE&K in 2005 to oversee ongoing projects and ensure that they are completed promptly, efficiently and economically. He accomplishes this by working with contractors, supervising team members, assigning duties and delegating responsibilities. Bruce is an expert in organizational administration and holds a master's degree in financial management from the US Navy Postgraduate School. He completed his undergraduate studies at Clemson University of South Carolina, earning a bachelor's degree in architecture. Bruce is an esteemed member of the AIA and the Navy Civil Engineers Corp Association and is professionally affiliated with the SHPE. Bruce retired from the US Navy in 1991, after twenty-six years of distinguished service, and was active in Hurricane Katrina rescue efforts as a project manager for FEMA, in their reconstruction of the US Navy base. Bruce is also active within the community and supports the Atlanta Vietnam Veteran Business Association and Mobile Construction Battalion II. At home in Big Canoe, Georgia, Bruce enjoys spending time with family, playing golf and traveling. Bruce is also the author of six books and spends much of his free time engaged in writing another.

In recognition of an exceptional career as project manager for BE&K Government Group, LLC, Bruce B. Geibel is being included in the 2008/2009 Princeton Premier Registry alongside the most prominent business leaders and professionals of every industry, from around the globe.
