

Iberian Traveler offers Exclusive Hotel Packages for Sanfermin 2009, Pamplona, Spain

By Iberian Traveler

Dated: Nov 07, 2008

Join Peña Seattle and follow in the footsteps of Papa Hemingway in Pamplona-Iruña. Choose from our VIP or Standard Hotel Packages from 2 to 10 nights. We also offer special Family Packages at our hotels and Casas Rurales (select country homes).

Iberian Traveler, along with Peña Seattle and our friends and associates in Pamplona are offering Exclusive Hotel Packages for the Fiesta de Sanfermín and the Feria del Toro, the "running of the bulls", eight days of the encierro, between 6 and 14 July 2009. All of our VIP and Standard Hotel Packages include one morning on a private balcony to watch the running. The VIP program includes our special buffet breakfast at the historic Nuevo Casino, a private social club located above the famous Café Iruña in the Plaza del Castillo, the very center of the fiesta.

We also offer our hotel clients the best tickets available to the bullfights, which take place each afternoon of the fiesta.

Recognized by the Tourist Office of Spain, Tourespaña and the Government of Navarra as the leading expert for the fiesta in Pamplona, we offer our clients the chance to become a part of the fiesta itself. As part of our services, with also offer our clients and others additional balcony reservations for the running of the bulls, the chupinazo (opening ceremony at noon of 6 July), special excursions and lunches during the fiesta, including a visit to the premier winery in Navarra, the Bodega Otazu. We also offer private transfers form Spain's major airports and cities. Private guides for small groups or individuals are also available during the fiesta.

We also provide custom itineraries throughout Spain, Portugal and southwest France for all of our festival clients to help them enhance their holiday experience. Our custom itineraries are prepared by Maribel of Maribel's Guides for the Sophisticated Traveler.
