Sarah Palin has the backing of neocons Rove and Kristol for a reason. She is a politician who has a dangerous zeal and she will not go away easily. Find out why the War Party wants Sarah and what she brings to the table.

Sarah Palin brings a religious world view to her political activism. This religious world view would generally be thought of as being harmless folly except for the fact that the neocons have embraced her. This is the danger, neocon empire building meets Dominionism and world control by a "Christian" United States.

Never mind that church state fusion has caused massive wars, persecutions, and all manner of mischief. Call it what you will, Dominionism, Theonomy, Reconstructionism, etc, but whatever name you give it coupled with amoral neocon thirst for power and you have a major danger to future course of the United States foreign policy.

Don't be mistaken, Sarah Palin is not going away. She represents to the neocons, and to the former members of PNAC who want to provoke Russia and control world resources, a popular manifestation of their misguided desires.

Remember that Mrs Palin has already stated that the Iraq War was a holy war. This is not an accident one time mistake. This is at the core of her dangerous beliefs. We have not heard the last from Sarah Palin.
