It was another stellar month of sales for finalexpensesalesleads.com The company that is well recognized as one of the most affordable, most reliable and quickest burial insurance lead providers continues to grow and expand.

If you're looking for burial insurance sales leads (final expense sales leads) look no further! Finalexpensesalesleads.com is the place you need to check out. The company continues to grow and expand on the heels of its biggest month ever, October 2008. Sales were the highest in the company's history, beating August 2008 by almost 25%! The addition of 25 new clients, as well as the recurring business of about 30 agents, pushed the company's balance sheet into new territory. To keep up with the added demand the owners have purchased new autodialers, now totaling almost 100 calling lines.

Finalexpensesalesleads.com calls into most states across the country, evident by the long list of satisfied customers from Florida to Minnesota to Arizona, and most places in between! The final expense sales leads are generated by autodialers and cater to the burial insurance sales agent. The company only calls certain ages and income levels as they believe they have the art of getting sales leads down to a science. According to the company's founder "This has taken a while, but we knew we would eventually become a leader in this field, and that's exactly what we are now...a leader, the leader! And I want to keep it that way!"

Website traffic is also up drastically...finalexpensesalesleads.com pulled in thousands of visitors over the last few months and the pace isn't slowing down. The company president says this is part of the reason sales have been so swift, but he also recognizes word-of-mouth as another significant part of the company's explosive growth. "Finalexpesnesalesleads.com has done well for us, but we have another goal that we want to make every single one of our customers happy with the leads they get from us, because we know for every agent that does well they'll tell another 4 or 5 agents! I know they might not share with people in their neighborhood or city, but they'll talk to agents in other parts of the country and spread the good word, when it comes to burial insurance sales leads there is only 1 place to go...finalexpensesalesleads.com!"

With the holidays coming up they say it might be tough to beat October 2008 anytime soon, but with new autodialers and more wesbite traffic they know anything's possible!
