Nov. 10, 2008 - PRLog -- To help ease the stress of debtors nationwide;

<http://www.CreditAllianceGroup.net> has now added Bold Chat to their website. Many people who find themselves in debt are very reluctant to reach out for help; and when they do online they usually find themselves overwhelmed with debt settlement companies calling. To help ease this fear and still provide a way to contact a Sr. Credit Specialist; Credit Alliance Group has partnered with Bold Chat as an alternative method of contacting them. The Bold Chat feature gives the debtor the ability to list all of their questions and concerns 24/7 online and get the help that they are looking for. With custom built surveys, and chat screens, the process is very streamlined. It also allows the debtor to give feedback on how Credit Alliance Group could improve their services.

“Bold Chat has opened a new doorway for people who have 2nd and 3rd shift jobs, to still acquire the help that they need,” says Shane Garner CEO of Credit Alliance Group.

Bold Chat is yet just another tool offered by Credit Alliance Group that puts them in a league of their own in the very competitive field of debt management.
