Cruise Holidays of Mission Viejo waives consulting fee to Cruise Value Center customers

Cruise Holidays of Mission Viejo is available to assist jilted Cruise Value Center customers. The travel industry reported earlier this week that the Cruise Value Center closed its doors. One of the nation's largest cruise-oriented retailers have left customers in the dark. In a statement posted on the Cruise Holidays of Mission Viejo blog, Carrie Finley-Bajak announced that "we will waive our consulting fee for anyone that needs help serving their bookins."

Problems are arising with client-related issues surrounding the closure of Cruise Value Center, one of the nation's larger cruise-oriented retailers. One insider reports that it's estimated almost $3 million in client final payments were never forwarded to the suppliers. Also, sources say Cruise Value Center has in excess of $1.5 million of insurance paid in, but never paid out to the vendor.
