

'My Italia' By Jeanne Marie Spicuzza Hits The Shelves In December

By Seasons & a Muse, Inc.

Dated: Nov 16, 2008

For Sicilian-American author, actress and filmmaker Jeanne Marie Spicuzza, MY ITALIA serves up drama, adventure and humor.

(Los Angeles, CA) - MY ITALIA, the second much-anticipated collection by internationally acclaimed, award-winning poet Jeanne Marie Spicuzza, makes its way to the shelves in December. Selections include "Sicilian Monopoly," "Italian Theatre," "Confession," and more. Spicuzza weaves tales of family, food, passion and travel with ironic wisdom. A collection of poems and stories that follow the author's adventures through her family's homeland, and some of the world's most beautiful landmarks, MY ITALIA is a hilarious and eventful travelogue of monumental proportions!

MY ITALIA is available through LIBRI Publishers. For more information, visit www.seasonsandamuse.com or contact info@seasonsandamuse.com.

Jeanne Marie Spicuzza is the author of various works, including Beautiful Terrible & True, a collection of poetry and writings, and Hope is My Favorite Color, an illustrated children's story and play staged at the Betty Brinn Children's Museum. Her self-titled CD was nominated for the Golden Headset Award. Spicuzza has featured at festivals and venues worldwide, and has appeared in theatre, movies, television and radio. Her work, hailed by the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences and the Vatican Division of Arts and Culture, may be found on permanent exhibition at the Brooklyn Museum. Spicuzza is currently in development of three motion picture projects, "Making Angels" and "The Scarapist," with director Julie Dash ("Daughters of the Dust"), and "Breath of God," a biopic of Hildegard von Bingen. She lives in Los Angeles.
