With a subscription to job.travel, employers can quickly search candidates and job opportunities either from handheld, mobile devices or desktop computers. Ideal for the busy, on-the-go individuals, job.travel offers mobile text and e-mail alerts when candidates and jobs match in Dallas. These alerts provide access to “snapshots” which provide a quick view of both candidates and job opportunities.

Job.travel, the premium employment site for the hospitality and travel industry, introduces an incredible deal for travel and hospitality employers. For a fraction of the price of .com competitors, job.travel offers employers both unlimited job postings and unlimited candidate searches for an annual subscription of $198.

Designed to focus on matching qualified job seekers with employers, job.travel is an easy, user friendly tool for both employers in “the Biz” and for job seekers. It saves employers thousands of dollars over other employment sites and offers resume uploading, creation, and unlimited job searches for free to job seekers.

In these economic times, job.travel saves employers money, time, and the hassle of finding a qualified candidate in the Big D. To take advantage of unlimited job postings and candidate searches for less than twenty dollars a month, please visit <http://www.job.travel/Directory/City/Dallas> to create your account and begin posting your organization’s career opportunities or create your resume for an exciting new position in hospitality and travel.
