Author will Donate a portion of Proceeds from Each Book Sold!

Author of "Slinging Stones When United States Congress has lost control and American Courts are out of control," does what she does best. For over twenty-five years, Dorothy Barron has given back to society and her community through her talent, time, skills and personal funds.

Author, Dorothy Barron will donate a portion of proceeds to a group of special people and special places that many of us often take for granted. The people who operate these places are professional, organized, and take exceptional pride in their work. So many of us "came to know" and love these places, first, as children, and never outgrew them. They consisted then, and now, of attractive and inviting nooks and crannies. They offer a plethora of services. What are these places and who are these people? They are our Public Libraries and Librarians.

The author will donate a portion of proceeds from each book ordered and paid for from December 15, 2008 through March 15, 2009, to Public Libraries and Librarians. The Release of Slinging Stones When United States Congress has lost control and American Courts are out of control" will occur late January 2009.

Postings of further details will occur on, or by December 15, 2008, on the "Order" Page at the author's website: <http://www.dorothybarron.com>.

Let us Support Our Public Libraries and Librarians; they have supported us for many, many years.
