Seavus Group has decided to surprise ProjectOffice.net users and potential buyers with unbelievable 95% price's discount. Now, all interested parties can get fully-functional ProjectOffice.net for only $0.99 per user.

BOSTON, MALMÖ, SKOPJE, LONDON, AMSTERDAM, NEW YORK (November 27th, 2008) – Expecting the holiday season, Seavus Group today unveiled special gift for its customers. Offering a remarkable present, Seavus allows them to save money on software and surprise their colleagues and friends for the upcoming holidays.

Seavus Group has decided to surprise ProjectOffice.net users and potential buyers with unbelievable 95% price's discount.

Now, all interested parties can get fully-functional ProjectOffice.net for only $0.99 per user.

"We wish all our customers a Merry, Mery Christmas and a Happy New year. In true holiday spirit, we decided to leave more in their budget for gifts and celebrations - said Mr. Aleksandar Blagoevski-Trazoff, Marketing Manager.

This offer will be available for purchases until January 10th.

In addition to this great offer, on 4th of December, brand new features of ProjectOffice.net will be introduced:

- Columns customization
- Import Contacts from Gmail, Hotmail and AOL (in addition to Outlook and Yahoo)
- New project templates
- Archiving of issues
- Filters in combos in all grids with multiple selection (just like in Excel 2007)
- Interlink wikis and issues
- ...and more.

"Besides the huge discount that we are offering, we will spice users' holidays with some new features and a lot of improvements: gathering all contacts in one place and easily get their addressed to send Christmas cards; 10 templates in total that will simplify the project manager's work; new filters that we added; the option to manage and resize the columns; linking the wikis and the issues etc... And remember that we will be busy during the holidays since we have already started working on the next major release" – said Ms. Ana Kacarska, Product Manager.
