

Novo Nordisk Signs Recruitment Advertising Agreement with the NAPRx® for Pharmaceutical Sales Jobs

By NAPRx®

Dated: Dec 03, 2008

Novo Nordisk joins a long list of pharmaceutical companies who have utilized the NAPRx® when they look to add to their pharmaceutical sales force. Pharmaceutical Sales (Diabetes Care Specialists) positions are available at Novo Nordisk-Apply Today.

Interested in a challenging career? Work as a pharmaceutical sales rep with Novo Nordisk.

Novo Nordisk is in the top three for 'Best places to work in the United States'. They have a winning culture and a proud 80-year history.

Even though Novo Nordisk is the worldwide leader in diabetes research, care, and treatment, they haven't forgotten the small-company values that got them where they are today. What does that mean to you? You'll work in an organization that truly values people. You'll work with colleagues who welcome your ideas...and share your enthusiasm. And you'll enjoy big-company opportunities!

Diabetes Care Specialists positions are available at Novo Nordisk. Each sales rep will implement national NN sales strategies on a local level. They sell mainly upon primary care physicians and are focused on improving the standard of care for diabetes by providing better methods of prevention, detection and treatment.

Novo Nordisk uses recombinant DNA technology to make innovative products for people with diabetes. They first marketed insulin for commercial use in 1923, and today they offer a comprehensive line of human insulin and insulin analog products. Novo Nordisk created the world's first insulin pen device, and now they are a world leader in production and distribution of these revolutionary insulin delivery systems.

The NAPRx® has been highly recommended to the many individuals who are looking to break into the Pharmaceutical Sales industry as well as for advancing the careers of current pharmaceutical reps. If you are looking to gain entry into the industry, please review the areas of the website geared to entry-level sales.

Novo Nordisk's winning culture is focused on cross-functional and cross-cultural teamwork. They combine clinical research to develop new products, regulatory efforts to work with the FDA to bring these products to market, and sales and marketing to convey a strong, clear message to patients and physicians. Novo Nordisk encourages employee involvement at all levels, which in turn helps to nourish development and innovation. When employees become involved, the result is a rich exchange of ideas and concepts. And that helps them give more to our customers, to their community, and to society as a whole.

Novo Nordisk joins a long list of pharmaceutical companies who have utilized the NAPRx® when they look to add to their sales force.
