

MLC PR Signs Emerging Actress Kristina Klebe

By MLC PR

Dated: Dec 18, 2008

“Halloween” star Kristina Klebe teams up with MLC PR in preparation for 2009.

Los Angeles, CA — MLC PR announced today that actress Kristina Klebe recently has signed on for the firm’s publicity services. Klebe is currently preparing for the release of her film “Peter and Vandy,” which also stars Jason Ritter. Directed by Jay DiPietro, “Peter and Vandy” will make its world premiere at the 2009 Sundance Film Festival – where it will compete in the “US Dramatic Competition.”

Represented by theatrical agent Justin Deanda at International Creative Management (ICM), Klebe is best known for her leading role as Lynda in Rob Zombie's gore-filled remake of “Halloween.” Prior to this portrayal, Klebe played a part in Spike Lee's 2004 seriocomic meditation on race and sexual politics, “She Hate Me.” She has also appeared on “Law & Order,” “Law and Order: SVU,” “Rescue Me,” and the German television program “St. Angela” and is starring in the upcoming film “The Accidental Husband” with Uma Thurman and Isabella Rossellini, set to be released in the US in early 2009.

ABOUT KRISTINA KLEBE

It is rare to find international actresses that exemplify the grace, intelligence, and beauty of former icons. Born in New York, Kristina Klebe grew up in New York City, Germany, France, and Italy. As a young adult, she fell in love with acting, and began her career with several off-Broadway plays including “Romeo & Juliet,” “The Servant of Two Masters,” and “The Bourgeois Gentleman,” to name a few. She attended high school in New York City and graduated from Dartmouth College with a major in Politics and a minor in Theatre/Film. Kristina went on to appear on TV shows ‘Law & Order,’ “Law & Order: SVU” and “Rescue Me.” Her big break came when she found out she landed the lead role of Lynda in Rob Zombie’s remake of “Halloween” in 2007. Soon after, she was cast alongside Uma Thurman in the film “The Accidental Husband” which is set to be theatrically released in the spring of 2009. It is safe to say, that Kristina Klebe is on the brink of stardom. In addition to “The Accidental Husband,” she will be at the Sundance Film Festival in 2009 supporting her film “Peter and Vandy” also starring Jason Ritter.
