Altamonte Springs, FL. December 30, 2008

Author Michael Skinner has penned a book of poetry some 88 pages in length. The book is something of a travelogue since it contains poetry and description based on travels in Florida, New Mexico and all points in between. Whether returning from the desert with received wisdom, diving into pools of wonder, or seeking fallen angels in faded suns, this book records and reveals whispers written on the wind.

Angel Sightings is a book in 4 parts: Angel Sightings, Written on the Wind, Water Wizard and Stone Poems. The book opens minds eye and explores the natural world. In addition, the reader is invited to go on a spiritual journey into the wilderness and to return with a sense of wonder.

In addition to penning two books of poems, Michael Skinner has created an extensive collection of abstract digital art called Digital Dreams. The digital works are based on mathematical equations and principles such as conic sections, polar coordinates and the Cartesian coordinate plane.

Michael Skinner's book and art work can be found online as the following websites:
