The economy took a turn for the worse just a few months ago and now the construction industry is feeling the pinch as the kinks work themselves down the line. Commercial construction starts have slowed but, they are expected to pick up rather quickly in the coming months.

Trade Staffing is a smart solution that contractors and subcontractors are utilizing to insure a profitable project. Grus, Inc a skilled construction staffing company with 21 years experience in the commercial and industrial construction industry is positioning itself and is ready for the increased demand of its core construction staffing services.

There are bright aspects to this slow down

Grus has reported an increase in skilled tradesmen applications. With more and more skilled workers out of a job the quality of workers at construction staffing companies is increasing rapidly.
