International Language Lab Center I.L.L adheres to an American and British Educational system of teaching English that offers an International program in a learning environment that nourishes your outstanding qualities.

The International Language Lab Center (I.L.L) was established in 2006 in the coastal city of Temara in the Kingdom of Morocco. We take a modern lively approach to teaching. Our curriculum is constantly updated and we guarantee our results. We teach English to the World and more than 10.000 people decide to study with us. Our audience ranges from the kids, youngs, adolescents and adults. We specialize in teaching General English and English for Specific Purposes in all domains.

I.L.L in affiliated with the International World Wide organization of Language Schools of English. We are officially the representatives of many universities, schools, organizations and Institutes in the USA, the UK, Canada....

We take a modern approach in all of our courses, utilizing cutting-edge technology in a multi-cultural environment. We also include a variety of activities based on course books, audio-visual aids, and specially-created materials 2008. We emphasize effective development in the four language skills (reading, writing, listening and speaking) with special attention paid to communication and conversation in different contexts and situations.
