An extended warranty is not the same as an auto insurance policy. Both cover your vehicle in the event of an unexpected expense however, they cover you in different ways.

An extended warranty is not the same as an auto insurance policy. Both cover your vehicle in the event of an unexpected expense however, they cover you in different ways. An auto insurance policy will cover your vehicle in the event of an accident or natural disaster but the policy will not cover normal mechanical breakdowns of the vehicle. Your extended auto warranty covers the replacement of parts that fail. For example, if your transmission fails your insurance policy will not pay for the repair or replacement but your extended auto warranty would.
