There is a sports upload section where anyone in the five boroughs of NY (Brooklyn, Queens, Manhattan, Bronx, Staten Island) or anywhere else outside of New York may post their action or team sports photos and fitness video of any recreational or sports activity they engage in, including: baseball, bodybuilding, fitness, bodybuilder training schedules, New York personal trainer listings, football, basketball, soccer, track, bowling and swimming. This is for amateur sports leagues only. Please do not post any video or photos of any professional sports team, league or franchise, as they will be deleted and the offender banned from <http://www.splaxon.com/coppermine/index.php>

There is an online store where visitors will be able to purchase our exclusive line of fitness, bodybuilding and sports compression clothing, in various sizes, styles and materials. These garments can be worn for any sport and will help prevent muscle pulls, strains and tears and will keep you warm in the winter months. This is not a muscle shirt nor is it being marketed to only bodybuilders or fitness professionals. Anyone who engages in high intensity training or activity in any weather may wear this; both male and female.
