

Plan a Green Escape this Valentine's Day (Family Day) Weekend in Ontario

By Northern Edge Algonquin

Dated: Feb 03, 2009

Imagine a romantic getaway this Valentine's Day Weekend (also Family Day in Ontario) that is green as well as romantic.

Family Day and Valentine's Day weekend couples are invited to Northern Edge Algonquin - a solar powered nature retreat at the edge of Ontario's Algonquin Park for a Green Romantic Adventure.

February 13-16, from Union Station in Toronto to Algonquin Park (return)

The adventure starts as together you step on the platform in Toronto's Union Station and enjoy no worries travel to South River, Ontario on the Ontario Northlander train. Snuggle side by side as the snowy landscape rushes by you and your Valentine.

From South River a complimentary shuttle takes you to the Edge of Ontario's Algonquin Park.

The Edge is a solar powered nature retreat offering snowshoe, cross country ski adventure, and even Dog sledding together in Algonquin Park winter wonderland!

Spa treatments including Hot Stone Massage and Reflexology are a part of the romantic Valentine's Day / Family Day package.

The food is inspired by the 100 Mile Diet and days are rounded out with candlelit dinners and after dinner snuggle by the fire or enjoy candle-lit night walk on the lake.

Take advantage of the new Family Day February holiday in Ontario and enjoy a four day / three night Green Valentine's Day at Ontario's Algonquin Park.
