On March 3rd 2009, at 7:00pm, Axsys Technology Group will be hosting the next online Webinar. This webinar will focus on providing our attendees with information about "Using The Power of Social Websites To Drive Traffic To Your Website".

On March 3rd 2009, at 7:00pm, Axsys Technology Group and the Miramar-Pembroke Pines Chamber of Commerce will be hosting their next online Webinar. This webinar will teach you how to use the power of many different social websites to drive traffic to your own website. By following some of the simple steps in this webinar, you'll receive thousands of visitors each month to your website.

At the end of this session, you'll walk away with knowledge of how you could utilize multimedia drive traffic from websites like: SlideShare, Blip.TV, YouTube, and Flickr to bring potential customers to your website.

You'll also learn the importance of having a Blog and why you should blog consistently at least 3 - 4 times per week. You'll learn how to promote your blog using websites like BlogFeed, AddThis, Digg, and StumbleUpon.

Finally, we'll also take a look at the impact that websites like FaceBook, LinkedIn, and Twitter can have on your business.

Throughout our journey, we'll look at various examples of websites that are currently using multimedia and social websites successfully.

Whether you have a simple one page website or an e-commerce website selling hundreds of products, you can't afford to miss this event.
