THE NEXT LEVEL TRAINING CENTER GRAND OPENING CELEBRATION

Tampa - - The Next Level Training Center at 12720 DuPont Circle (at Race Track and Linebaugh Roads) is pleased to announce their grand opening celebration on Saturday, February 28 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. A ribbon cutting ceremony will be performed by Upper Tampa Bay Chamber of Commerce.

This facility is designed for the unique workout style. It is a massive 5000 square feet of floor space along with unlimited acreage in and around the building. According to Eric Stratman, owner and Director of Operations of The Next Level Training Center, this facility is the only center in the Tampa Bay area with the best health and fitness professionals of Tampa Bay.

Eric stated, "We wanted a training center that would be the premier health and fitness facility in Tampa Bay for adults and kids of all fitness levels may workout together. A center where a cutting edge workout and training system, providing the most optimal and efficient workout, is available. I think that we've accomplished that. I'm excited about all the great instructors and practitioners we have brought together and all the space to give our members the best health and fitness experience possible."

Use of the gym and all facilities will be free to the public, with free fitness activities for the entire family. Prizes will be awarded for the kids fitness contests.

Additionally, two free Mixed Martial Arts seminars will be offered with Rob Kahn on Jui Jitsu and Dan Rawlings on Muay Thai during the grand opening (for adults, women and kids), one at 10:30 a.m. and the other at 1:30 p.m., as well as a Crossfit training class with boot camp elements.

The grand opening will be held in conjunction with a food drive for the America's Second Harvest of Tampa Bay. The Next Level Training Center will enter your name in a drawing for every can of food for every person who tours the facility that day. All food donations by the public will be accepted by the America's Second Harvest of Tampa Bay.
