

Photographs from OSCAR Winner "MAN ON WIRE" on New Web Site

Philippe Petit's right-hand-man, Jim Moore, who helped in the preparation of the daring WTC towers highwire walk in 1974, has assembled a web site of his photographs that appear in the OSCAR winning film MAN ON WIRE.

Feb. 23, 2009 - PRLog -- Jim Moore's impressive photographs along with interviews with him and voice over segments are featured in the electrifying, funny and intense documentary Oscar winning film: MAN ON WIRE.

Performing arts photographer Jim Moore became right-hand-man for aerialist Philippe Petit, taking part in his exploits during the 1974 planning of the unprecedented, illegal and daring walk on a high wire between the two World Trade Center towers.

Thirty-three years after the 'coup', Jim presents these impressive photographs revealing the audacious climb, hover and rigging of the monolithic World Trade Towers with Philippe Petit at:

<http://www.jimrmoore.com>

Website URL:

<http://www.jimrmoore.com>

The photographs from the film appear in the "GALLERY" and "STORE" section of the website.

###

Please No Junk Mail Publicity is a boutique PR firm specializing in arts and artists.

<http://moorepics.com> New Web Site

--- End ---

Source	Please No Junk Mail Publicity
City/Town	New York City
State/Province	New York
Zip	10013
Country	United States
Industry	Arts , Movies , Photography
Tags	Man On Wire , Philippe Petit , Oscar Winner , Highwire Photographs , Art , Movies , Photography
Link	https://prlog.org/10187315

Scan this QR Code with your SmartPhone to-

- * Read this news online
- * Contact author
- * Bookmark or share online