

Winnipeg Realtor offers Free Virtual Tours with Every Listing!

By Bo Kauffmann

Dated: Feb 27, 2009

Bo Kauffmann, an award-winning Realtor with Winnipeg's Remax Performance Realty, is including a Free Virtual Tour for every home which is listed with him.

Research shows that 87% of potential home-buyers are searching the internet for advice, information and mls-listings of homes available for sale. In a survey of these buyers, the questions was asked: "What would you like to see more of?", and the resounding answer was "More Pictures....and More Virtual Tours."

Traditionally the process of creating a Virtual Tour meant that an independent company had to be employed to capture the video and install it onto a web-site. Since this process was both time-consuming and expensive, it meant that Virtual Tours were reserved for only the luxury homes, condos and other high-end properties.

New technologies have made the process more accessible, and in mid 2008, Bo Kauffmann purchased the equipment necessary to create a Virtual Tour. Since he is in complete control of the equipment and the web-site and technology, Bo is able to offer this benefit for ANY home which is listed with him.

Whether you are selling a luxury home or a mobile home, a high-rise condo or a vacant lot, virtual tours will help entice home buyers to come and take a look at your property. And since the Tour is placed on a web-site, it is accessible to anyone, all over the world.
