Baltimore's Fashion Week had a wonderful idea to mix fashion with food

After Wednesday, August 12, 2009's runway theme Onyxi: Ruler of Darkness Covering The Horizon With Magic, Baltimore Fashion Week had a wonderful idea to mix fashion with food while, having fun and what better place to go for a post event after the runway event but, Lucy's Irish Pub.

“We looked for a restaurant that could satisfy the delectable taste pallets of the fashionable individuals in the city, and after a long search Tanae Nelson-Harris, Production Associate, discovered Lucy's Irish Pub. Once I was informed of the information we decided this would be the perfect post spot to debrief and hang-out after the runway event on Wednesday, August 12, 2009,” stated Sharan Nixon, Founder/CEO of Butterfly Productions.

Lucy's Irish Pub is located in the heart of downtown Baltimore, directly across from the historical Hippodrome Theatre. Lucy's Irish Pub is located at 21 North Eutaw Street, Baltimore, Maryland 21201.
