"Since 2002, our company website has been popular and well-acclaimed. But the Web world was entirely different at that time. looking at the greatest change in trend and technology, we felt that it is the right time to revamp our site and give it a striking and contemporary look", said one of Pixelsmedia's partners, Dipankar Maitra. "We are glad that we have successfully retained the branding of the original site so that it does not have a jarring effect on our potential clients and returning visitors. Thus, keeping the branding same, we have just modified the look and feel of the site and introduced some additional features", he added.

Siddhartha Roy Choudhury, another partner of Pixelsmedia, added that, "Now that we are also providing Search Engine Optimization, Internet Marketing of websites as well as Content Writing, along with our Website Design and Web Development Service, our Clients will be able to have the Complete Website Solution under one roof, without having to hunt for other providers in those sectors ."

Pixelsmedia ardently believes in Client Satisfaction and thus keeping the same in mind the revamp of its corporate website has taken the company one step forward in serving their clients.
