March 10, 2009 - PRLog -- Hair Weave - Hair Weaves

Where can you find a salon that does only premium hair weaves? A salon that only uses premium hair for their weaves? A salon that explores every other option first, before ever recommending a weave? It is Patricia's Famous Hair Salon, the top hair salon in the New York City, NY area, located in Astoria, Queens, NY. They have customers in the New York, NY area, with a focus on the Manhattan, Queens, Astoria, Long Island, NJ, Ct, and Philadelphia.

Patricia's Salon does not recommend weaves. What other salon, that does 10 hair weave types, doesn't recommend weaves? Why is that? They believe that there are better options for your hair, than weaves.

Why do a weave, when you can have a hair extension, a fusion hair extension, a hair replacement, or a lace front wig?

They feel that people choose weaves, because that is what they know, what they are use to, and what other hairdressers, who know nothing better, push them do. They offer 50 different hair options, so they do not look to push anyone in any one idea, but rather to what their goals are.

They feel that hair weaves are best used only for people who want to cover up a part of their current hair, or are on a budget, or that do not want a lace front wig. Those are usually the only reason why a weave should be considered. If you have hair loss, hair replacement options are better for you. If you want to show your hair, hair extensions are a better option. No need to rush into hair weaves, hair weaving, etc, without seeing your other options.

Patricia's most popular weaves are her hair net hair weaving, interlocking hair weave, sew in weave or track weave. Since she only uses premium hair, her hair weaves are more expensive than others, ranging from $500 - $1300.

People travel to her nationally and international for her hair weaves. She has many NY, NJ, CT, Pa, Ma, Boston, Philadelphia, etc visit the salon regularly.
