

Moto Guzzi Stelvio: Mini Course in Off-Road (Cesenatico)

By Antonio Ida

Dated: Mar 13, 2009

Moto Guzzi World Club introduced the new maxi-enduro model in last year Moto Guzzi World event in Cesenatico, when ten new Stelvio motorbikes were available for test ride, after their official presentation through the press.

Lecco, Italy -- Following up the launch of the Stelvio on April 2008, Moto Guzzi World Club is hosting its third annual date of Moto Guzzi World (Cesenatico from March 27 to 29, 2009). Moto Guzzi World Club introduced the new maxi-enduro model in last year Moto Guzzi World event in Cesenatico, when ten new Stelvio motorbikes were available for test ride, after their official presentation through the press.

Saturday, March 28 in Cesenatico: mini course in off-road

This year the date for all the Stelvio owners is planned for Saturday, March 28 and something more is going to happen....

We agreed with AdventureSchool owners www.adventureschool.it on planning a one-day raid with motorbike lessons: departure is due from Cesenatico from 10,30 to 11,00 when we will ride through the paths of the Apennines behind Rimini AdventureSchool is learned in travel and in riding on/off road courses: they organised the Norge trip to North Cape with the newsmen on the occasion of the official presentation of the motorcycle and also rode the Stelvio in the video that Moto Guzzi made for its launch.

So it will be a guided off-road tour with a launchbreak in a agroturism among the woods, where we will have a break and our motorbike lessons. We will return to Cesenatico moreless at 18,00 just in time for a dinner with all the participants to the third Moto Guzzi World meeting.

Maximum number of motorbikes accepted: from 25 to 30.

Price for lunch and motorbike lessons: from 35,00 to 40,00 Euro

Both the Stelvio owners and all the Guzzi enduro fans are welcome, so we are waiting for Quota, TT, NTX riders, too. If you are interested in this meeting, please email us stating your details and the model of your motorbike.

Moto Guzzi World Club asks all his friends in meeting in Cesenatico from March 27 to 29, for the third Moto Guzzi World event , even if they are not interested in the one day course.

Moto Guzzi Stelvio Video:

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=YahfxTfoJ64>

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=x5ocBHTkji0>

Moto Guzzi World Club: Our purposes

- ? Promote the interest, knowledge and preservation of historical value Brand Moto Guzzi and motorcycles produced by it
- ? Create and develop ties between the owners of motorcycles Moto Guzzi
- ? Organize events, meetings, conferences, competitions
- ? Spread the national and international mototourism, enhancing and rediscovering the local tourist itineraries thanks to the activities carried out and exchanges of information between members
- ? Create and develop links with non-profit or other associations, sporting or otherwise, non-profit activities for social, humanitarian, environmental protection, etc., which can be helped through initiatives promoted by Association, in the motorcycle sector or other sectors

? Develop relations with Moto Guzzi S.p.A. and coordinate its activities and its members with those of other clubs, international clubs and brand clubs. For these purposes, the Association will play all those activities relevant to the achievement of social purpose, like providing information and maintaining relations with other organizations and associations in Italy and abroad.

Contact:

Antonio Ida

Moto Guzzi World Club

Via E. Parodi, 57

Mandello del Lario, Lecco 23826

Italy

+39-0547-632872

mondoguzzi@faberi.it

<http://motoguzziworldclub.it/content/blogcategory/3/77/>

Category	Travel
Email	Click to email author
Country	Italy