Brittany Campbell of LaShelly will be showing her collection at this year's Baltimore Fashion Week

Baltimore, MD – At the tender age of 21, Brittany Campbell is ready to showcase her LaShelly clothing line to the fashionistas of Charm City at Baltimore Fashion Week.

“I decided to become a part of Baltimore Fashion Week because I knew that it was my time to put myself out there and show the world what I can do. I haven't been in the business that long, but I know I am ready,” says Brittany Campbell.

Designing clothes has been a part of this young designer's life since 1999. While attending Woodlawn High School, Britney Campbell constructed her designs into beautiful garments from her Baltimore home. Now, she is ready to show her talent on the big stage of Baltimore Fashion Week.

“I am looking forward to fashion week and I hope you enjoy what I have to offer,” says Campbell.

Baltimore Fashion Week will be held August 10th – 14th, 2009 at the historical War Memorial Building in Downtown Baltimore. The theme of this year's fashion week will be, “Once Upon A FASHIONable Dream – A FASHIONista's Fairytale.”

The deadline for designers interested in showcasing their collection for fashion week is Sunday, April 19, 2009. Registration is through the website www.baltimoresfashionweek.com – Fashion Week 2009/Designer Registration Form.
