Offshore Bank Account with an Bank in Cyprus, this explains how to open an Offshore Bank Account in Europe, Cyprus, with the Major Banks in the European Offshore Jurisdictions. Are you considering to open an Offshore bank Account, read this.

Once in a while you will consider opening an Offshore Bank Account with an jurisdiction which isn't considered as an "banana republic" why?

Because when you are starting conducting business, internationally, and you get successful you will be asked by your European business partners for your Wire Transfer banking details. If you live in a non European country it can be expensive to transfer money to you. With an Offshore Bank Account in Europe you can avoid high costs for Wire

Transfers and you can still have full access to your funds. Why should I open an Offshore Bank Account? Many of the regular banks in Europe have some high demands and requirements to their new clients to even be considered as new clients.

Offshore Bank Accounts are often easier to open, both, as personal or business bank account, and you will have the same level of security with your offshore bank account as you know from your current bank. The best is, you will also have the widely know banking secrecy which applies to the limited offshore jurisdictions in Europe. So where do I get my offshore bank Account? We suggest all our new and existing clients to open a Cyprus bank Account, as you read a offshore bank account in Cyprus.

Cyprus Banks offer all what you know from any other legit country and much more. Beside the normal services and products which the European Banks offer, then you also have the banking secrecy in Cyprus and you are able to open corporate Cyprus bank accounts much faster than with any other bank.

There are a lot of benefits to open a corporate Cyprus bank account compared to personal bank accounts, first if the offshore company is registered and incorporated properly the business bank account will not bear your name, and you will not appear on any e-mail, document or Internet System where you have to enter your banking details. Furthermore if you become an offshore company for instant in Cyprus, and this offshore company is opening the offshore bank account, you will have 100% protections against any claims from any creditors or other claimant if it should come that far.
