Seville Classics new enterprise ecommerce website was launched by Interactive Web Solutions, an interactive web agency that offers Ecommerce Web Solutions, Custom Web Native Application Development and Search Marketing services.

For over 28 years, Seville Classics (<http://www.sevilleclassics.com>) has focused on bringing innovative house ware and hardware products to homes and businesses, altogether providing the best design, quality and pricing. Working with the highest level of integrity and bringing the best value to our customers is still the heart and soul of their mission at Seville Classics. As an international manufacturer and distributor of innovative products to Wal-Mart, Costco, Bed and Beyond, Lowe's, Sam's Club and other national retailer, Seville Classics required the "best of the breed" enterprise level B2C and B2B enterprise level ecommerce solution.

Our client overall statement of our project solution was "This works wonderfully... We are very happy with our new ecommerce website!"

Interactive Web Solutions enterprise ecommerce development platform was utilized to provide Seville Classics with a robust multi-tiered ecommerce solution. The IWS Enterprise ecommerce platform provides B2C and B2B multi-tier/multi-group that allows manufacturers and distributors to efficiently manage their high volume ecommerce website. IWS Enterprise ecommerce platform provides deep integration with UPS and FEDEX shipping modules for automated shipping label generation. Furthermore, integration with our client's middle tier accounting platform is also part of our enterprise level solution.
