

Master Motivator and Professional Educator, Deborah Shane, Featured Speaker at Community Events

By Deborah Shane

Dated: Apr 13, 2009

Deborah Shane, Owner and Founder of Train with Shane, will be a featured speaker or presenter at three upcoming business and community events in May and June.

Deborah will deliver a workshop titled, "Speak the Language of the Generation to Whom You Are Speaking", May 12, 9a-11a, as part of the Bonita Springs Area Chamber annual Small Business which runs May 12-15, and culminates in the Small Business of the Year award luncheon May 15 at the Bonita Bay Club. The featured speaker at the awards luncheon will be economist Ken Mayland, Clearview Economics, who will present The 2009 Economic Outlook: Why the Economy Will Recover.

On May 30, she will be one of the experts that will discuss Responsible Entrepreneurship, at the Women Leading The Way Conference, at Edison State College, in Ft Myers, Fl 9a-3p. This conference will bring together diverse women and men, to discuss and commit to actionable goals and plans to change and impact, social issues, greening your home and business, the environment, alternative energy, organic farming, health freedom, and recycle, reduce, reuse. The keynote speaker is Linda Tarr-Whelan, author of "Women Lead the Way, A Guide to Stepping up to Leadership and Changing the World".

Deborah will also be speaking on June 6, at the annual Women's Conference, held at Nova Southeastern University 11a-3p, in Naples, Fl presented by the Southwest Florida Hispanic Chamber. Her keynote will be about Women in Business in Career Transition and will draw from her own career transition success story.

Deborah recently launched the TWS Metropolis, a weekly internet radio show, a monthly newsletter and a blog, all offering FREE information, tools and tips to create community, connections and conversation.
