Wall Street Journalist, Gautam Naik, will be presented the "Art of Reporting Award" by the Genetic Alliance for his article on ARPKD/CHF. Gautam Naik was nominated by the ARPKD/CHF Alliance.

The Genetic Alliance announced its "Art of Reporting Award", naming Wall Street Journalist Gautam Naik, who effectively captured the impact of an Autosomal Recessive Polycystic Kidney Disease and Congenital Hepatic Fibrosis (ARPKD/CHF) diagnosis.

Nominated by the ARPKD/CHF Alliance (<http://www.arpkdchf.org>), Naik wrote candidly of the anguish many ARPKD/CHF families face, incorporating medical reality and the raw emotions of a prenatal diagnosis. His poignant reporting resulted from in-depth research and collaboration with affected individuals, researchers, and the ARPKD/CHF Alliance <http://www.arpkdchf.org>.

Gautam Naik will receive the "Art of Reporting Award" at the Genetic Alliance's Annual Conference Banquet, Discovering Openness in Health Systems, July 17-19, 2009.
