How to Pleasure a Woman and Make Her Melt

1. Talk to Her

The first thing you need to do is talk to her. You see, women are actually very self conscious in the bedroom. If you really want her to get comfortable, then you need to tell her how sexy she looks and how good she makes you feel. Remember, in order to make her go wild you will need to get her fully comfortable first.

2. Emotional Energy

Pump LOADS of emotions into her. You can do this many ways. Most of which are done BEFORE you get into the bedroom. The key here is to get her to invest emotionally in you. In other words, gain a strong emotional connection.

Women's mental state plays a huge role in them achieving orgasms. You need to cater to both her physical and emotional needs in the bedroom.

3. Be a Man

Women inherently want a man who is dominant in the bedroom. During sex, a woman's deep feminine energy seeks to be with a highly masculine energy. So BE masculine and take charge in the bedroom. This is still one of the best things you can do.
