Each spring, the award-winning Martha Stewart Weddings grabs national attention with its awe inspiring "Engagement Ring" cover. This year's cover had more glamour than usual, thanks to the prominent presence of Kirk Kara's pear-shaped platinum and diamond engagement ring from the Carmella collection.

The long awaited cover feature, titled "Eye Candy," presents this season's 75 hottest jewelry designs. Always a constant trendsetter among millions of readers, the annual, top-selling issue features the world's most prestigious jewelry designers. This year, Kirk Kara took center stage among the likes of Cartier, DeBeers and Tiffany & Co. with a stunning Carmella collection engagement ring crafted with 2.90 carats of diamonds.

As today's highest circulated bridal magazine, Martha Stewart Weddings sets the standards for elegance, sophistication, and romantic allure. This brilliant spring issue featuring Kirk Kara will be on newsstands for three months, creating national brand enthusiasm and driving potential brides and grooms into Authorized Kirk Kara Retailers.
