Gotügo was proud to have donated its time and services to the 4th Annual 2009 "Walk for the Woods" event held on Saturday, April 18, 2009 in the efforts to preserve the South River Greenway, right in the heart of Anne Arundel County, Maryland.

Gotügo was proud to have donated its time and services to the 4th Annual 2009 "Walk for the Woods" event held on Saturday, April 18, 2009. In the efforts to preserve the South River Greenway, local residents of Crownsville, MD were able to explore a piece of wilderness right in the heart of Anne Arundel County. Not yet open to the public, the South River Greenway is a protected piece of land soon to become one of Anne Arundel County's largest parks containing upland streams, lily filled ponds, spring wild flowers and over 57 species of birds. Hikes range from 1 to 4 miles on marked trails. This is one of many fundraising events gotügo has contributed to in the year 2009.
