Loving Barcelona Apartments is now offering luxury apartments for holiday rental at budget prices. Recession busting prices are tempting tourists away from hotels and allowing them to upgrade to Luxury.

Loving Barcelona Apartments is fighting the Recession by offering Hot Deals and Promotions on Luxury Barcelona Apartments.

During the boom years there was an explosion in apartments being offered to visitors to Barcelona, mainly due to the under supply of well priced quality hotels.

When the credit crunch hit last Autumn many apartment owners were concerned that they would be left with rent to pay on many empty apartments. Combined with the strength of the Euro, resulting in a hiking of Sterling equivalent pricing for the legion of UK Easyjetters the outlook was gloomy to say the least.

To combat this, there has been a slashing of prices and a proliferation of amazing discounts, Hot Deals and promotions, such as free Cava. So for the same price that you paid last year for a budget apartment, you can upgrade yourself to a quality Luxury Barcelona Apartment with Loving Barcelona Apartments. Staying in a luxury apartment in Barcelona can transform your holiday from a sightseeing and eating expedition to an indulgent Mediterranean experience.
