

Rare Tiffany Antique Sterling Silver Tray

Source: Nelson and Nelson Antiques

Dated: May 03, 2009

Nelson and Nelson is pleased to announce a brand new treasure trove of rare Tiffany antique sterling silver trays/salvers from the 19th Century. These are museum quality pieces available for the discriminating collector or buyer.

In example, this is a gorgeous sterling silver tray or salver by the renowned silversmiths at Tiffany & Co. in a timeless Georgian design. This large circular tray stands on four leafy scroll and flower bracket paw feet and has a plain field with a stepped rim with a wide scroll and shell border. The border has been beautifully molded to sculptural affect, and uses the rich silver to great advantage. This classic silver tray is exceptionally versatile and could be used as a serving piece, a support for a centerpiece, or engraved as a commemorative plate. It is in excellent condition and is the finest quality of Tiffany's heavy gauge silver. It measures approx. 13" in diameter, 1 3/4" high, and weighs approx. 31.5 troy ounces. It is marked under the base with the mark of Tiffany & Co., the words Makers, Sterling Silver 925-1000, pattern number 8495, order number 1697, 13IN, and the letter T for its founder Charles L. Tiffany, used from 1891-1902. This elegant antique sterling silver tray or salver is a timeless design that would make a wonderful addition to any silver collection. A functional yet decorative piece that would make a great gift! Price: $4,500.00
