

Long Island Personal Chef Leads NY Metro Personal Chefs Chapter

By Supper's Ready Personal Chef Service, Inc.

Dated: May 06, 2009

Personal Chef Glenn Burgess of Supper's Ready Personal Chef Service, Inc. has accepted the Presidency of the local NY Metro chapter of the United States Personal Chef Association.

Personal Chef Glenn Burgess was recently named President of the NY Metro Chapter of the United States Personal Chef Association. Glenn has been actively involved in the organization since 2005. He steps into the leadership role as President after serving the last two years as VP.

“Being asked by my peers to take the lead in guiding our group is a wonderful testament to my recent work as Vice President,” says Chef Glenn. “Our Chapter gives the public convenient access to personal chefs all across the metro area – whether you live on Long Island, the City, Westchester or northern/central New Jersey.”

“The NY Metro Chapter is one of the largest groups of organized personal chefs in the country. This is a diverse group of personal chefs, each bringing something special to this unique industry. My fellow officers and I hope to make consumers more aware of the exciting opportunity to have a personal chef make the kitchen in their own home the best restaurant in town,” said Chef Glenn.

Supper's Ready Personal Chef Service, Inc. has provided Long Island with a delicious alternative to eating out since 2004, providing a variety of services, including in-home dinner parties, private cooking lessons, or the classic personal chef service - great everyday meals.
